

NORTHERN DAVIDSON COUNTY

NDCCC

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

What is NDCCC

NDCCC is a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) founded in 1996 and located in the heart of Northern Davidson County. The chamber is a direct reflection of the community it serves with representatives from local businesses working in unison to support, promote and invest in the community's sustainability and growth as a whole. Local townships represented in this chamber include Arcadia, Midway, Reedy Creek, Wallburg and Welcome.

Who Are Chamber Members

Chamber members range from small/large businesses to start-ups companies & consultants, spanning nearly every industry. Among this diverse group is a more diverse employee base, each one living and sharing a different story. Our long time members, spliced with new members emerging each year, is what makes our chamber diverse, cohesive, relatable and provides each member with the opportunity to define Northern Davidson County's future. Get to know our chamber members using our online membership directory and buyer's guide. You can also discover more about the Chamber by joining us for our next meeting. NDCCC meets the Third Tuesday of every month, with the exceptions of July and December.

What NDCCC Does

The goal of NDCCC is to support the larger Northern Davidson County community through building a strong network of locally owned businesses. Our members are a dynamic representation of our community, each bringing something uniquely valuable.

NDCCC directly supports the local business community through extensive networking opportunities that include monthly meetings, lunches, directory of local businesses/services, promotion & advocacy of the local business community through the use of social media, monthly newsletters, speakers. In addition NDCCC advocates for small business through school partnerships & scholarships, award recognition programs, partnerships with local government and grand opening ribbon cutting ceremonies to introduce new businesses to the community.

Becoming A Chamber Member

When you invest in your Chamber, you are investing in both your business and our region. Chamber membership offers numerous benefits and keeps business leaders on top of important, ever-changing issues and trends within our community.

Chamber Members Receive

- Access to member-only events and professional development programs & workshops
- Networking & Connection opportunities with other local business owners and associates
- Regular updates concerning local & state legislation and Davidson County Board of Education
